Child's name _____

Dear Family, Your child is learning to make comparisons between two unlike things.

- When we describe something, we often compare it to something else. For example:

The children are like little angels.

Here, children are being compared with angels.

- When two unlike things are compared, using the words like or as, a simile is formed.
- In each sentence below, underline the two things that are being compared:

1. Her voice was like pure gold.

2. The clouds were like cotton balls.

3. Jane's hair was like corn silk.

4. The bells tolled like claps of thunder.
